

I am so very grateful that NJ's "DoNotCall" law is so strict. I found Telemarketers calls to be rude, disruptive and intrusive to our home life. Now they waste my time & money (on ink and paper) by sending unsolicited ads through my fax machine! At least with the TV I can mute the sound or turn of the TV completely if ads become annoying. I deserve the right to do the same with my telephones!